

you have two minutes.

SENATOR HABERMAN: Senator Hall, has the committee ever gone back.... Now I knew that the attorney fees were court ordered. But have they ever gone back to the court order and investigated or looked at to see how they arrived at that figure?

SENATOR HALL: No, Senator Haberman, since the attorneys function before the court we figure that that was the best place for that decision to come from, not from us as lawmakers.

SENATOR HABERMAN: Thank you, Senator Hall. Thank you, Mr. President.

SPEAKER BARRETT: Thank you.

SENATOR HABERMAN: You're being very fair this morning.

SPEAKER BARRETT: Read the bill, please.

ASSISTANT CLERK: (Read LB 777 on Final Reading.)

SPEAKER BARRETT: All provisions of law relative to procedure having been complied with, the question is, shall LB 777 with the emergency clause attached become law? All those in favor of that motion vote aye, opposed nay. Have you all voted? Please record.

ASSISTANT CLERK: (Read record vote as found on page 1881 of the Legislative Journal.) The vote is 42 ayes, 2 nays, 1 present and not voting, 4 excused and not voting, Mr. President.

SPEAKER BARRETT: LB 777E passes. Anything for the record?

CLERK: I have nothing for the record, Mr. President.

SPEAKER BARRETT: That being the case, I am pleased to announce that Senator Wehrbein has some guests in the north balcony. We have 30 members of the government class from Plattsmouth Public Schools and their teacher. Would you people please stand and be recognized by your Legislature. Thank you, we are glad to have you with us this morning. Also some special guests of Senator Marsh under the south balcony. Mr. Nuri Korkmaz, the Secretary General of the Democratic Left Party from Adana, Turkey, and a U.S. State Department escort, Erboy Gonen. Would you please stand and be recognized. Thank you, we are especially glad to
